

Let's Learn

It's time to share a story, read and write, have fun with numbers, and much more! It's time for Let's Learn.

Support learning in and out of school with Let's Learn, a public media series for children ages 4 to 7.

One-hour programs include lessons based on the science of reading. Other segments focus on math, science, social studies, the arts, and social-emotional learning.

Dynamic educators present the lessons, along with content from leading cultural institutions.

Stream 275+ full episodes and 915+ short segments with English/Spanish captions on letslearn.org. The website includes story segments with ASL, topical collections, and printable activities.

New content includes the literacy mystery series Wordsville, which focuses on vocabulary enrichment.

"The educators on Let's Learn are like celebrities in our household."
